

Budapest Economic Forum 2020 program

Nominate yourself for the CFO of the Year 2020 award and become the financial executive of the year!

We will soon find out who the top corporate financial manager in Hungary will be this year. On 8 October, at our Business and Finance conference which convenes the country's most important financial leaders, we will present the CFO of the Year award by Portfolio and the Credit Management Group. Nominations are open until 30 September. At the event, we will honour the chief financial officer the award committee has found the most capable and successful among those working for Hungarian companies with good financial performance.

Nomination for the CFO of the Year 2020 award is open to the top business and finance managers of all domestic companies (except those active in the finance sector). We are receiving applications at cfooftheyear@portfolio.hu. Upon request, we will send you the application form, which we would kindly ask you to return by 30 September 2020 to the same address. All nominees can attend the event at a 20% discount, while the top eight will receive free admission to the conference on 8 October.
