

Business and Finance Summit 2019 - CFO of the year program

Apply to win our award and become the top CFO in Hungary!

We will soon find out who the top corporate financial manager in Hungary will be this year. On September 12, at our Business and Finance conference which convenes the country's most important financial leaders, we will present the CFO of the Year Award by Portfolio and the Credit Management Group. At the event, we will honour the chief financial officer the award committee has found the most capable and successful among those working for Hungarian companies with good financial performance. The other shortlisted candidates will receive the CFO Master 2019 Award.

Nomination for the CFO of the Year 2019 Award is open to the top business and finance managers of all domestic companies (except those active in the finance or consulting sectors), We are receiving applications at cfooftheyear@portfolio.hu. Upon request, we will send you the application form, which we would kindly ask you to return by August 31, 2019 to the same address. All nominees can attend the event at a 20% discount, while the top eight will receive free admission to the conference on September 12.
