

Budapest PropTech Forum 2019 program

SECTION 1: Is the European property sector ready for a digital transformation?

09:00 - 09:20 Welcome speech - The future of our profession in the built environment

Technological development, climate change and urbanisation will increasingly impact on cities and people's lives. To design, create and maintain spaces where people (want to) live, work and play require skilled professionals. Which skills will be needed in the future? And what will the role of professionals be in building that future? Sander, who leads the RICS team aiming to inspire trust and confidence in real estate and construction markets, will try to answer these questions in his opening speech.

Speaker:

Sander Scheurwater, Director Corporate Affairs, Europe, RICS

09:20 - 09:40 Is proptech the new normal? - It's time to embrace new technologies

James is a prominent global PropTech influencer. He founded Unissu along with co-founder Eddie Holmes. Unissu.com is a global platform which lists over 6000 PropTech businesses from around the world and aims to help property professionals navigate the ongoing digital transformation of the industry.

Speaker:

James Dearsley, Consultant and Board Advisor, Unissu

09:40 - 10:10 What does Artificial Intelligence mean for commercial real estate?

Antony has been a software development and technology strategist in commercial real estate since 1995. Now he consults and works with real estate boards on transformation, technology and innovation. He is ranked high on the list of most influential online commercial real estate people and is coming to Budapest to talk about how Artificial Intelligence is transforming our world and our business.

Speaker:

Antony Slumbers, Co-Founder, PropAI

10:10 - 10:50 Digital transformation in Europe - Investing in innovation

A roundtable of leading European PropTech gurus and investors. Csongor, based in Paris, is the Deputy Head of International Property Management at BNP Paribas Real Estate. He believes that 80% of what PM companies do will be automated, so carried out either by Artificial Intelligence (AI) or algorithms. The 20% that remains human is still extremely important as human relationships continue to be crucial. Arnie, based in London, leads investments at Round Hill Ventures, a pan-European VC firm investing in companies disrupting the built environment. He is frequently featured on Wired's 100 Most Influential People in Technology and was Forbes 30Under30 in 2016. Dénes represents Hiventures, an investor that aims to support cutting-edge ideas of freshly established startups and innovative businesses in Hungary. Hiventures has already invested in a number of local proptech firms.
