

XX. Property Investment Forum program

Registration - Morning Coffee & Networking

I. section - Reckoning

Over the past 20 years, the Portfolio Property Investment Forum, or "PIF", has matured and come of age with the most important players in the domestic real estate market! This year, we are not the only ones celebrating an important anniversary, but also several key players in the Hungarian real estate market, who have also been contributing their expertise to the development of this unique and diverse industry for decades. The past is important for its strong foundations, for knowledge and experience, but nothing is as important as tomorrow, the future that lies ahead, that we have to work for, that we have to shape, that we have to make better, more beautiful, sustainable, safe, efficient, with our own means. Together! As the domestic real estate market has done in the last 20-30 years and will do in the next 20-30 years! On this day, we lay the foundations for this: The next 20 years.

Moderator: Gábor Borbély, Director, CBRE

08:30 - 08:40 Opening - It's been 20 years together!

Moderator: Gergely Ditróy, Business Development Director, Portfolio

08:40 - 08:50 A new real estate market for a new world! - Are we ready!?

Speaker:

Noah Steinberg FRICS, Chairman & CEO, WING

08:50 - 08:55 20 Years Behind Us - and Disruptive Transformations Ahead!

Speaker:

Dr Ernő Takács, Chairman, IFK

08:55 - 09:00 The Future of the Profession Is Continuous Development!

Speaker:

Norbert Schómer MRICS, Chair, RICS Hungary

09:00 - 09:15 In the Light of the Numbers - 20 special years have passed, but what will the next 20 be like?

Speaker:

Gábor Borbély, Director, CBRE

09:15 - 09:50 Reckoning! - Let's Lay the Cards on the Table and Open a New Chapter!

20 years have passed in Hungarian and regional real estate markets and economies. Where were we 20 years ago, and where are we standing today!? Was this all our potential, or did we lose a lot somewhere? What should we do to make the domestic real estate market successful again internationally? Where did the domestic market fail, and where was it a role model?

Moderator: Gergely Ditróy, Business Development Director, Portfolio

Conversation participants:

Gábor Futó, Founder and Co-Owner, Futureal-Group

Dániel Jellinek, Partner, CEO, Indotek Group

Noah Steinberg FRICS, Chairman & CEO, WING

09:50 - 10:35 Past the bottom!? - How to boost the domestic real estate market again!

The past year has been a rocky one for both the domestic and international real estate markets. But has the picture become clearer in the various segments? Are investors waking up? Has the rental market calmed down? Have the best-selling products changed? Will the financing start? Are digitalisation, greening, and ESG on the rise? What will be the reality of the domestic real estate market in the next 1 to 20 years?

Moderator: Dr Dániel Ódor MRICS, Partner, Taylor Wessing

Conversation participants:

Mátyás Gereben MRICS, Country Manager, CPI Hungary

Mr Lóránt Kibédi Varga MRICS, Managing Director, CBRE Hungary

Kata Mazsaroff, Managing Director, Colliers Hungary

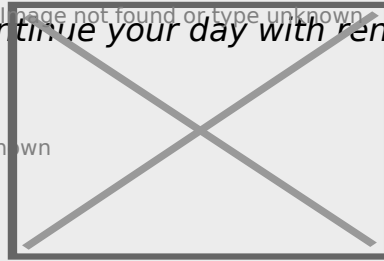

Álmos Mikesy, Deputy CEO, Gránit Alapkezelő

II/A section - FM & Office

Has it been finally decided whether people will come back to work in the offices or not? Regardless of how many days workers are on site, is the appropriate amount of space still necessary? Is the office cost just a "rounding error" in the company's expenses anyway? What is the pressure on rents and other incentives due to rising vacancies? Will office developments that were considered certain be halted? What waves does the entry of the state make? The fate of 3.5 million speculative square metres will depend on the trends, movements, and decisions of companies in the coming years. Should the office market be on a new footing for the next 20 years?

Moderator: Gábor Borbély, Director, CBRE

10:55 - 11:10 What is the future for office buildings? The decade of sustainable and adaptive work environments

The future of office buildings lies in developing sustainable, flexible, and future-ready work environments. How are various stakeholders in the real estate industry contributing to this transformation? What trends in work culture, technology, and environmental responsibility are highlighting the potential of evolving office spaces and shaping the vision of reimagined, "collaboration-promoting" offices?

Speaker:

Zsolt Kákosy MBA MRICS, Senior Director, Head of Property Management, Icon Real Estate Management Kft.

11:10 - 11:25 Indoor Coverage as a Basic Infrastructure

Where does the Hungarian digitalisation process currently stand? Regardless of whether it's 4G, 5G, NB-IoT, self-driving cars, smart cities, or AI, continuous and excellent mobile communication coverage is essential for ensuring that the network is reliably accessible to everyone everywhere.

Speaker:

Dr. Gergő Budai J., CEO, Vantage Towers

11:25 - 11:35 Sustainable Real Estate 2030: Operations and Effects on the Future

Operating office buildings and shopping centres according to sustainability principles by 2030. New technical solutions that reduce energy use and emissions and improve the efficiency of building operations. In addition, moral and ethical considerations that enhance the social value of sustainability will be addressed. It analyses the business benefits and challenges of sustainable operations, taking into account economic impacts and quality expectations.

Speaker:

Valter Kalas MRICS, Managing Partner, Newmark VLK Hungary

Balázs Simonyi MRICS, Head of Office Advisory, Eston

II/B section - Digitalisation & Hotel & Retail

Domestic tourism, along with the accommodation market, could receive a further boost in the coming years if the repositioning and increased popularity of Budapest as a tourist destination is successfully achieved. This, while it may not lead to the development of new large shopping centres, could bring the opening of higher prestige retail brands and stores either in existing shopping centres or in high street retail spaces. How will tourism and the hotel market in Budapest move up a level? What trends are shaping consumer habits, needs, property use and services? How do Gen Z and Boomers shop? And how does all this relate to the latest advances in artificial intelligence and the rush to digitalise, collect and analyse data? The future is already being written, but there are still many details to be seen!

Moderator: Kata Tóth, Conference project leader, Portfolio

11:00 - 11:35 What will AI and digitalisation give and take away from the real estate market?

Moderator: Zoltán Kalmár, Founder, Proptech Strategic Expert, Proptechzoom.com

Conversation participants:

Béla Almás, Chief Executive Officer, Streamnet

Bea Déri, Director of PR, Marketing & Design, CPI Property Group

III/A section - Financing & Construction Industry

The most important friends of the real estate market are financiers, investors and the construction industry. Success, speed and quality depend on them (as well). Opposing effects, interests, circumstances, and prospects currently characterise different areas, but the common interest is the same for everyone. Operational, prosperous, sustainable, financeable, efficiently run, fast, cheap and accurate property developments to the satisfaction of tenants and buyers. This is where we need to plan ahead for another 20 years!

Moderator: Gábor Borbély, Director, CBRE

Balázs Sabathiel, cégvezető, HungaroCAD Informatikai Kft.

III/B section - Circulation & Sustainability

ESG, sustainability, green transition and compliance, alternative operations, energy efficiency, repositioning and taxonomy, these buzzwords are perhaps getting boring, but they are only just starting to really penetrate our daily lives and are constantly reshaping our operating models. In the next 20 years, these issues are expected to be more important than the question of whether or not to go to work due to Covid, or the impact of e-commerce on the physical retail market.

Moderator: Kata Tóth, Conference project leader, Portfolio

13:40 - 13:55 Win-Win: Focus on Reducing Energy Costs of Developments and Environmental Protection

Strategic Recommendations To Reduce the Embedded Energy Capacity Demand of Office and Commercial Buildings.

Reception & Networking

Stay with us after the professional programmes and let's celebrate together for the 20th time!

We will enhance the enjoyable business networking with gourmet bites and a colourful drink selection. Hogan Lovells will provide a champagne bar, Rézangyal will supply the pálinka, and Jammertal Wine Estate will offer the wine selection. Of course, our G&T bar will be back this year, and alongside the cocktails, we can toast to new and old acquaintances with Kreinbacher Estate's sparkling wines. Let's celebrate together again this year!
